IN DEATH STRUCCLE

Poor Old Tom Hopkins Fought Hard For His Life.

SMOKING WHEN SEIZED.

Story of the Murder As it Occurred in the Darkness of Midnight.

A letter written by the late J. Byron Nixon to his brother, W. H. Nixon, of this city, was probated as the will of said deceased in the county court Saturday. The letter was written in Los Angeles, Cal., and bears the date of January 2, 1906. Thos. H. Ennis, Joe P. P'Pool and W. H. Nixon proved the writing to be that of the late J. B. Nixon. The document stated in part that the writer desired W. H. Nixon to have all his personal property, jewelry, clothing and money. That he had on that date returned to the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York, a policy of $6,000 to have W. H. Nixon made beneficiary. Also that he had returned to the Equitable Life Assurance Society, of New York, a policy of $2,000 for the same purpose. That two policies had been sent to the New York Life Insurance Company, (amounts not given), to have his sister, Eva Nixon, made beneficiary. Also that he had stated that his sister was to receive $120 a year as long as she lives, but should she not live twenty-five years, after his death, the amount must be paid to some one. Deceased had applied for a policy in the New York Life Insurance Company for $5,000, stating that if same was granted, "and I die, I want my brother, J. C. Nixon, to have one-third of this policy, brother Even Nixon one-third, and brother Aaron's wife, Willie V. Townes, one-third." Then the following paragraph appears: "This letter to take the place of a letter to you, dated March, 1904, in regard to the disposition of my estate." The communication ended as follows: "My trip here was hurried, owing to illness of the lady I am engaged to, and since my arrival she has died. This is why I am making these policies over to you at this time. I will be in Hopkinsville Jan. 15, and will go to Pensacola about Feb. 1."

The Pythian Knights.

The local lodge Knights of Pythias attended the services to men only at the Methodist church Sunday night in a body and the line-up was the longest that has been seen in the city for a long time by any one order. Each man in line wore a beautiful carnation, either white, red or pink, with the compliments of their brother Knight, Mr. T. L. Metcalfe, who is one of the most popular members of the order. At the next meeting of the lodge a vote of thanks will be extended Mr. Metcalfe for his thoughtful courtesy.

New Manager.

Mr. Thomas Ennis is wearing a broad smile. A bouncing big boy arrived at his house last Sunday afternoon and has taken charge of everybody in the home. The little fellow is decidedly in favor of home rule and the manager of the Opera House is inclined to turn the business over to him.

Fatal Fire.

Lotta Glenn, fifteen years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Glenn, of Daviess county, was burned to death Sunday, her dress catching fire from an open grate.

"Why Smith Left Home"

The U. D. C. entertainment at the Opera House, Friday night, Feb. 16, will draw one of the biggest crowds of the season. The cast of the play is made up of the strongest local talent in the city.

Evidence is accumulating that poor old Tom Hopkins was brutally murdered and his body placed on the L. & N. Railroad track, where it was cut to pieces last Thursday night.

The post mortem examination ordered by County Attorney Duffy on information from Officers Duke and Claxton and Dr. T. W. Blakey, L. & N. physician, after an inquest had been held returning a verdict of accidental death, which changed the whole aspect of things. Dr. Andrew Sargent positively asserted that at least three knife wounds were found on his body, besides numerous cuts made by some sharp instrument, possibly an iron pin.

Subsequent examination of the scene of the murder throws additional light on the murder. Late Wednesday night Hopkins was seen near the Acme Mills talking to some negroes about taking him to Walter O'Neal's. They disappeared together. The negroes are known. Less than two hours later the old man's mutilated corpse was found. The wounds on his body show that he was seized from behind and reaching over his right shoulder—the old man was short of stature—a knife was raked across his throat, which did not make a deep cut, and a vicious stab was made into his throat and the knife turned round. The jugular vein was not cut and the muscular old Irishman dropped his pipe from his mouth and a scuffle ensued. This struggle carried them to the bottom of an embankment of several feet where the cob pipe still filled with half burned tobacco was picked up. Finally the old man was brought to his knees by the blows on his head. A place on the ground plainly showed the imprint of the cloth over his knee. Then while on his knees or lying prostrate on the ground, the deep lunge was made into his side, making a hole one inch in diameter, four inches to the left of the naval.

Then the old man was dragged up the embankment like a hog and placed upon the railroad track. The place where he was dragged was plainly shown on the bank. The old man may not have been entirely dead when hit by the train, but he was undoubtedly helpless and dying, unable to even crawl out of danger. Dr. Sargent was not sure from the wounds made by the rails whether they were made before or after death. The lacerations were bright red, but the chemicals used may have caused the bright appearance of the wounds. Whether he was dead or merely beaten into insensibility the work was completed in the dead hours of midnight, and the old man's body scattered along the railroad in "San Domingo," one of the most unsavory negro settlements in the county.

The order for $6 which he tried to have cashed the evening before was not found in his pocket. If it had been cashed, the money was gone. This is an important point in the case.

The murder could hardly have been carried out with more brutality. The old man was harmless as a child. He was drinking some, just enough to make him happy and good natured. At 10 o'clock he was singing a jolly song on Ninth street, the last man on earth who would think of suicide. The theory of suicide is ridiculous and not to be considered seriously.

It was murder, bloody, brutal, fiendish murder. It is to be hoped that Gov. Beckham will offer a reward for the apprehension of the fiends who committed the crime. Because Hopkins was old and friendless, is no reason why the crime should not be treated lightly.

NEW SCHEDULE.

Hopkinsville Accommodation

Leaves Half an Hour
Earlier.

A new time card on the L. & N. went into effect Sunday. Only one train out of this city is materially affected by the change. The Hopkinsville and Nashville accommodation now departs at 6:10 a. m., instead of 6:40, or thirty minutes earlier. This train reaches Nashville at 8:55 a. m. Returning, the accommodation leaves Nashville at 5:45 p. m. and reaches Hopkinsville at 8:55 p. m. No. 53, the St. Louis Fast Mail, South bound passes here at 5:47 p. m., meeting no. 92, North bound, at this point. There was a change made in the schedule of Nos. 51 and 52.

A new train has been added between Erin and Nashville, thus giving three trains each morning into Nashville from here and three returning each afternoon. The new train leaves Guthrie at 8:30 a. m., and reaches Nashville at 10:05. This train stops regularly at Springfield, and on signal for passengers to and from Nashville at Cedar Hill, Greenbrier and Ridge Top.

DRYDOCK TO GO TO SEA

BIG STEEL TROUGH TO MAKE VOYAGE TO PHILIPPINES

Elaborate Preparations Made for the Journey Which Will Take Nearly Four Months to Accomplish.

A modern version of the old Mother Goose rhyme about the "Three wise men who went to seek a baby" will be written about the "Three wise men who went to seek a dry dock" when the officers of the United States navy are sending across the seas to the Philippines, it is to be hoped that the same unfortunate outcome of the voyage which overtook the wise men of the nursery rhyme will not be experienced by the crew of the dry dock. Never has such a tremendous large floating dry dock been built, and never before has such a stupendous and perilous task been undertaken of towing more than half way round the world so bulky and helpless a mass of steel and metal as this dry dock. The men of the United States navy have been working out the difficulties of the voyage for months, and the men of the dry dock have been working out the difficulties of the dock.

I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." Sold by Cook & Higgins.

woman's wear of the Bovine.

If it ever does come to pass that buffaloes become the farmer's next friends and do his hauling and trawling in a more pleasant and satisfactory way than oxen did, it will be interesting to know how the women folk take the change. Not only the farmers' wives and daughters, but the summer boarders within his gates, even now many of these ladies cannot be hired to trek through a pasture where the mildest old cow that ever lived lies under a tree half asleep chewing her cud. Of course there are exceptions on both sides. Some cows, it is perfectly plain, have no prejudice against the sex, even at milking time, and a few women will pick their way fearlessly through a drove of cattle. But the ordinary woman, especially the one who spends but a few weeks in the country each year, is persuaded and would persuade all her friends that a cow is an awful beast of prey and she wouldn't trust herself in a five-acre lot with the best trained and gentlest specimen that ever lived. —Boston Transcript.

COMMITTEE'S CALL

For a Democratic Congressional Primary.

At a meeting of the Democratic District Committee for the Second Congressional District of Kentucky, held pursuant to a call of the Hon. R. B. Bradley, chairman of said committee, in the city of Madisonville, Ky., January 18, 1906, the following call was issued:

It is hereby ordered that a primary election be held in all of the precincts of the several counties composing the Second Congressional District on Saturday, May 19, 1906, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for Congress in said district to be voted for at the regular November election, 1906. Said primary election shall be held under the provisions of the Kentucky Statutes regulating primary elections, between such hours as regular State elections are held.

No candidate in said primary shall be allowed to select as a device the device of the Democratic party.

Each candidate desiring to be voted for at said primary election shall on or before 2 o'clock p. m., April 19, 1906, file with the chairman of the district committee his written request to have his name placed on the ballot for said primary election and shall state whether or not he desires his name to be printed under any device, and if so he shall designate the device so desired by him.

An assessment of $2,500 is hereby fixed for the purpose of defraying the expenses of said election, to be paid by the candidates, and each candidate shall on or before 2 o'clock p. m., April 19, 1906, pay to the chairman of said district committee, his proportionate part of the expenses for holding the said primary election.

The right to vote at said election shall be limited and restricted to those who affiliate in good faith with the Democratic party and further pledge their support to the nominee of said election, and possess the qualifications prescribed by statute, provided, however, that persons under the age of twenty-one years on the date of said election, but who will have reached said age by the date of the November election, 1906, and who wish to affiliate with the Democratic party and will pledge themselves to support the nominee of said primary election, shall be entitled to vote.

Should there be but one candidate complying with the requirements of this call, after 2 p. m., April 19, 1906, there shall be no primary election held under this call, but the Democratic District Committee shall meet upon the call of the chairman at such time and place as he may designate and declare the person complying with the requirements of this call the nominee of the Democratic party for Congress in the Second Congressional District of Kentucky, and the chairman of said committee shall return to him his entrance fee.

The candidate receiving the largest number of legal and qualified votes cast at said election shall be declared the nominee of the Democratic party of the Second district for representative in Congress.

The District Committee will meet in the city of Henderson, Ky., at 2 o'clock, p. m., on Wednesday, the 23rd day of May, 1906, for the purpose of canvassing returns and issuing certificate of nomination.

In testimony whereof, witness our hands this 18th day of January, 1906.

The Grip.

"Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of grippe, and the grippe is a most terrible disease. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grippe, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is the only one of the many remedies that have been used this remedy, not one case has ever been reported that has not recovered. For sale by L. L. Henry Schwieters has been appointed official indexer at Louisville, the place John W. Vreeland was appointed to and failed of confirmation. It is hardly a doubt that Hopkinsville
will handle the big end of the crop
this year. The other counties of the district are thoroughly satisfied
with the way the interests of their people are looked after here and some of the County Associations have already endorsed the Hopkinsville Market. The pricing firm at Pembroke it is said will send their tobacco all here for storage and the Hopkins and Caldwell County Association are expected to give a strong preference to our market, on account of its accessibility and for other weighty reasons. The names of James West & Co have been added to the list of prizers given last Saturday for the local market. All of the houses are now open and ready for business.

After brief funeral services in Brooklyn and in New York City, the body of Gen. Joseph Wheeler, wrapped in the stars and bars and the stars and stripes was taken to Washington for interment in Arlington cemetery yesterday.

The post-office at Anchorage was robbed of about $500 early Sunday morning, the safe being blown open with giant powder. The burglars escaped by stealing a horse and buggy and going to Louisville. The only clue is the print of a man's left hand in the dust on a typewriter cover showing a finger to be missing.

Roselle Knott will be seen the last half of the week at Macauley's in "When Knighthood was in Flower." Miss Knott is fast growing to be recognized as one of the foremost actresses in the country, and it is said, with a splendid production and a strong supporting cast, that she is seen at her best in this romantic, picturesque and interesting play.—

The Jeffersons county grand jury has taken up the investigation of the mysterious return of the Albaugh bonds to Aaron Kohn, the Louisville lawyer. J. P. Albaugh, who employed Mr. Kohn in the case, says he wishes the whole transaction aired. Fabius Gwin, a Shoals, Ind., lawyer, asserts that the Louisville detectives know who returned the bonds to Kohn. If Kohn is summoned as a witness, it will make him immune from indictment.

SATISFACTORY OUTLOOK

Hopkinsville Most Popular Tobacco Market in District.

BEST SALES MADE HERE

Many Counties Will Give Strong Preference To Our Markets.

There are now but 130 hogheads of the old crop Association tobacco still unsold on the market. The local merchants, Mr. C. F. Jarrett, is greatly pleased over the outlook for a successful season this year. There is hardly a doubt that Hopkinsville
will handle the big end of the crop
this year. The other counties of the district are thoroughly satisfied
with the way the interests of their
people are looked after here and

Bob Taylor's Magazine.

Among the hundreds of periodicals
competing for public favor today, Bob Taylor's Magazine stands in the forefront ranks, not only on the count of material prosperity but on that of literary merit as well. The success of this new comer in the publishing world is little short of phenomenal when we consider the keen competition and the constant fresh accessions to American Magazine ranks. The distinguishing features of Bob Taylor's is its distinctive Southern flavor. Governor Taylor's personal monthly contributions, under the title "Sunshine and Moonshine," unfailingly strike the keynote of Southern mirth and melody, and this tone is admirably sustained throughout. Perhaps no public lecture has ever been more enthui-astically received than Governor Taylor's "Fiddle and Bow." This attractive dissertation, a comming-ling of sentiment and humor, is presented in monthly installments, with sympathetic illustrations.

MURPHY MADE SUPERVISOR.

Fiscal Court Elects County
Officers Saturday Morning.

COMPROMISE WAS MADE

All Minor Positions Now
Filled By Democrats.

A special session of the Fiscal Court was held Saturday with all of the Magistrates present and Judge Breadth presiding. The meeting was for the election of officers for the ensuing two years and by a party vote of 5 to 3, the following Democrats were chosen:

Road Supervisor, Will J. Murphy,
vice D. T. Cranor.

Posthouse Keeper, S. T. Myers,
vice his brother, H. C. Myers.

Delinquent Tax Collector, John G.
Childress, vice Mack Denton.

County Physician, Dr. F. P. Thomas, vice Dr. J. B. Jackson, (Dem.)

Trustee Poor Fund, J. G. H. Gord, vice W. W. Wittry.

The appointments took effect immediately.

Mr. Murphy, who gets the office of Road Supervisor, was the candidate for Assessor last fall and failed of election by only 5 votes. He lives at Macedonia but is arranging to move as soon as he can to the Palmyra district. He is a brother-in-law of Judge W. T. Fowler, until recently county judge. He is a staunch young Democrat whose election will be gratifying to many friends all over the county. A former caucus agreement made by a majority of the five Democrats was set aside and Mr. Murphy was named in a spirit of compromise, receiving all of the votes.

He gave bond and was sworn in Saturday afternoon.

The Court fixed the school superintendent's salary at $1200 instead of $1500 as heretofore.

New Magazine Fiction.

The deluge of short stories in the magazines is so overwhelming, that it is usually quite useless to attempt to point to the merit of any particular story. But in the February number of the Cosmopolitan Magazine there is a tale so remarkable for its laugh-provoking qualities that it seems necessary, for the good of the jaded magazine reader, to call attention to it. It is signed with the curious name Malvolio Jones, obviously a nom de plume.

Why a quiet and perfectly respectable old lady should want to go to Niagara Falls in a barrel, and why this proceeding seems perfectly reasonable is told with the most whimsical touch in this story. It looks like the coming of a new and distinctive humorist.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, disengaging the body from its natural beauty, vigor and cheerfulness. When the kidneys are out of order or dis-

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a man to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child is born with weak kidneys, it is natural to expect that it will be unable to control the passage, it is yet difficult with bed-wetting, dependent on the cause of the difficulty, to plan a course of treatment which would favor the treatment of the important organs. "Unpleasant trouble is due to a disease. A condition of the body, which is not natural, and not to a degree as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and this is one of the greatest troubles.

"The Holy City."

ALLEGORICAL REPRESENTATION OF "THE HOLY CITY".
CONSTRUCTION IN THE SIXTH CONVENT AT HOME.

The announcement of performance of "The Holy City" at Holland's Opera House, Tuesday night, Jan. 30, (this evening), is received with great satisfaction. No play presented this season has made the impression credited to this great Biblical play produced by Gordon & Bennett in even more sumptuous manner than is their other conspicuously successful productions. The coterie of players, trained chorus and monster scenic equipment of this grand dramatic spectacle is everywhere praised for superior combination, and in arranging for its appearance here, believing the public to be more interested in artistic production than in the cost of transporting paraphernalia, Gordon & Bennett do not advertise "trains of cars" or "tons of scenery," yet for every performance of "The Holy City," the stage scenes are cleared of all that is generally used and the company management provides the scenes which are so beautiful and so universally extolled. There is no hand, no day parade, but audiences and that night brings evidence of more sumptuous preparation than is often seen. Confidence and good will champion the efforts of the firm; the second season's presentation of "The Holy City" is eagerly looked for here.

$50,000 IN IMPROVEMENTS.

Work of Extending Side
Trackage Begun by L. &
N. Yesterday.

WORK WILL BE PUSHED

Will Be no Occasion for Blockading Street Crossing
when Completed.

The improvements in the yards of the L. & N. here, a detailed account of which appeared in the columns last fall, under orders of Division Superintendent John W. Lagsdon, are of great importance.

Mr. Lagsdon was here a couple of weeks ago to let out the contract, and now he has his surveyors on the ground. The contractor for grading put a force of 50 men at work yesterday and the work will be pushed to a rapid completion.

As if generally known, the L. & N. has for sometime past realized the necessity for more side trackage here. As the trackage will be increased on both sides of the river it will be sometime before the work is completed. The price for grading is $25,000, this with the other expense of rails, etc., will bring the total up to $50,000 or more.

A telegraph station will be located North of the bridge where all orders will be received and given to freight conductors. This does away with all through freight trains stopping in the city. Cars containing merchandise for our merchants will be pulled into the city by the yard engine.

Everybody will rejoice when Mr. Lagsdon has carried out his ideas. They know him to be a man of deeds as well as ideas and are not surprised at what he has undertaken.

The people may expect something greater from him before the year is gone. He and local agent Hoce are a whole team of themselves, and have under consideration a large and commodious passenger station, with carshed extending from 9th to 10th

Miss Pym from the West

By AMY F. CACKETT

(Copyright, 1905, by Joseph H. Bowles)

It was quite by chance that Miss Norah Ellington Pym found a place in our quiet boarding house, and to us it was a subject for constant wonder that she remained where things generally were so "slow."

The first night, arrayed in splendor, she looked around the room in amazement, and the next day she regaled us with stories of the style people in our station kept up in the west.

On the second night three of our ladies turned in the necks of their blouses and wore lace. By the end of the week our ladies had appeared in evening blouses, hostess gowns, menus and entrees at dinner, and the kitchen girl was pressed into cap and apron and brought up to tip in the waiting.

Our ladies made still further efforts to reach her level by wearing all their jewelry and giving a show of everything they possessed.

One afternoon, after an interview in our hostess' private room, a suave, polite stranger was ushered into our midst and introduced as a new boarder.

Within an hour he had won all hearts except that of Miss Pym. She looked on in silent scorn while he waited on the ladies with ingratiating smile.

As soon as he was safely out of hearing quite a chorus of voices said:

"What a charming man!"

Miss Pym adjuged for a moment, and then suddenly jumped to her feet.

"I reckon she's a shiner," she said. "I know a thing or two in the west. If a man comes fooling around, bowing and scraping, where the womenkin aren't young and good-looking, we put a double lock on our jewel cases and tell the police to keep their eyes on him."

"Good gracious! You don't mean to suggest that Mr. Compton?"

"Never you mind," broke in Miss Pym. "I've got a safe upstairs, so

Mr. Compton and myself alone."

"As for you, Major Belsbin," he said, turning to where I stood in amazement, "I am sure you are innocent of having arrested for aiding the escape of a criminal. You have done that pretty effectually," he went on, looking at his watch. "She has had almost an hour's start."

"Good heavens!" I exclaimed; "you don't mean to tell me—"

"I mean," he interposed, "that I am Detective Norton, and that I have been staying at this house for the sole purpose of watching Miss Pym. Unfortunately she must, apparently, have identified me, but she was very careful, to keep the knowledge to herself. She has been here fast asleep in the dining-room, and I have myself of the opportunity of searching her room. The little evidence that I have gathered here would be sufficient for my purpose. But now, owing to your clumsy interference and her cleverness, she has slipped off. There is only one thing I can be thankful for, and that is that she hasn't taken anything with her this time."

"Are you sure of that?" I groaned.

"Quite," he answered; "the ladies had all their jewelry on last night, and I know Miss Pym has not been near any of them since to-day."

"You had better come down and see them," I said, helplessly.

He hastily explained to them how matters stood. But they were at first too frightened to understand.

"Now," he finished up, "I hope, ladies, you all have your money and money safe."

"Oh, yes!" said Miss Moseley, timidly; "we gave it all to Miss Pym last night to lock up in her little safe."

Almost before she had finished speaking, Miss Norton was up the stairs and I followed quickly behind him. When I entered Miss Pym's room he was at the open window of the safe open—and it was practically empty.

I am I regret to say, quite convinced of the cleverness of Miss Norah Ellington Pym, for she is still at large.

YE HUNTSMAN.

Now doth ye elite huntsman
Take hunting-hounds
And with a brand "outride"

Ye go forth to scrouse
And search the hollow bushes
That haunt ye woods about,

He seeks with ye rabbit
And eke ye doe and bucke,
But presently he shooteth
To ye hounds like jacks,

And as he payeth his tithe
He dartsch of hys lucks!

Anon he tries another,
Yeapt wch ye "stille-hunt" plan,
And when he cometh to ye forest
As softly as he can,

And suddenly he baggeth
A costly hird man.

Mark well ye elite huntsman
Hys hounds are all in order,
But when a hove he seeth
Hys knees together knocke,

And when he cometh to ye kille
Ye rabbit with a rocket!

Bware ye same huntsman,
And walk behind hym notes,
The which of his vicinage
Is the most ferocious creature—

For when he is wroth he roarath
Most frequently gets shotte!

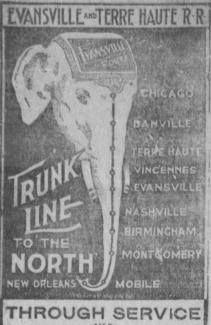

Meantime, observe ye Nimrod—
He stoppeth for to buy,

A hound to be his hounds
And a dog to be his hounds,

And when he cometh to ye kille
Just withkith of hercys.

HER EYES.

Flowers are her garden's pride;
They watch for her alone.
Within whose smile there lies
A beauty like her own;
The flowers are her eyes,
In haste to morn to see
Her who is all their hope,
So fair is she!

Flowers are for heaven's eyes—
They watch for her alone.
Lilies of paradise,
White pearls in grape deep,
For her eyes are eyes.

Throughout the tranquil night,
Bringing the lovely dream
For her delight.

Nor flowers nor girls are eyes
To me, I know one—
Her lover—shadow-wise,
Companion of the sun!
How I long for her star,
In loveliness outshining,
Mirrors of Love they are,
Brillianting mine!

The Man Who Got a Pass

By CHARLES BATTELL LOOMIS
(Author of "Cheerful Americans," etc.)

(Copyright, 1905, by Joseph B. Bowles)

"Yes, sir, I'm going to Chicago on business," said Binkersley to a suburbanite who had stopped in to buy a pair of gloves. "It's quite an expense, but I'll take mine I'll get it back in health. Chicago is a quite a city and I've always heard that I may get time off my business. Castor gloves? No, we're all out of those just now. How would you go to Chicago? What train?"

"Why, there are a few dozen ways," said the suburbanite, who was a trifle nervous. "Why don't you take mine?"

"Get a train, sir. I've always my little helper. No, sir, I've always my way."

"That's all right," said the traveling man, "but you know those railroad corporations are sort of a bunch of scoundrels."

"I quite a fellow, but I could get a pass, I suppose. I may get time off my business. Castor gloves? No, we're all out of those just now. How would you go to Chicago? What train?"

Bargains in Heating Stoves

Owing to the remarkably mild winter, we have in stock more Heating Stoves than we care to carry over to another season.
In view of this fact we have decided to cut prices on all grades in order to reduce stock. If you are in the market for a stove it will pay you to see us before you buy.

THE SECOND
MEN'S MEETING.

Knights of Pythias in Large Numbers Accept Invitation.

ABOUT 250 CONVERSIONS

Eighteen Persons Admitted to Full Connection Last Sunday.

Rev. P. H. Davis preached last Sunday night at the Methodist church to a packed house, composed entirely of men.

The members of the Knights of Pythias order had accepted an invitation and seats were reserved for them. A conservative estimate places the number who attended at 125.

The evangelist took for his text

"He took him by the right hand and lifted him up." His theme was helping the man who is down. He started out by saying that he believes in the brotherhood of man and Fatherhood of God. He said that no man has the right to abuse the fellow who is the slave of drink or has any great besetting sin. If church members would reclaim fallen men they must stoop down and take them by the hand and help them up and must hold to them after they are up. Every man needs friends. He thanked God that he has friends all over the state, who have helped him, and he wants to be a friend to everybody.
Churches and all kinds of fraternal orders do help a man, but they cannot save a soul. He spoke at length of the love of God, who loved every man, woman and child in the world so much that he gave his only Son to come into the world to save them.
He then spoke of the love of Christ, who was always comforting the troubled and healing the afflicted.

The preacher related several incidents that caused ripples of laughter to be heard over the congregation.
They were not out of order, however, as they relieved the high tension to which the evangelist had drawn them by his earnest pleas for every body to lend the strong right hand to the man who was down. At the conclusion of his sermon an invitation was given those who wanted to turn their backs on their old ways, burn the bridges behind them and live a new life, to go forward and give their hands to evangelist. Only two or three responded, but quite a number remained to the after-meeting.

The meetings will continue during this week, which is the fourth week.

The sermon to young people Sunday afternoon was delivered to a full house.

Eighteen persons were admitted to full connection with the church

Dr. Lyon announced Sunday night that, including those who have been reclaimed, there have been over 250 conversions thus far. It is known that there are 40 other converts who will unite with the Methodist church.

The ministers of the different churches have made a thorough and systematic canvass of the city. It was divided into sections and a house visitation made, and, as we have been informed, the ministers were surprised at the small number who
